(Membership No. 104).

No. 39-CWA(7)/61—In exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (1) of Section 39 of the Cost and Works Accountants Act, 1959 (Act No. 23 of 1959), the Council of the Institute of Cost and Works Accountants of India has made the following amendments in the Cost and Works Accountants Regulations, 1959, the same having been previously published and approved by the Central Government as required by sub-section (3) of the said Section.

In the said Regulations:

At the end of Chapter XI, after Regulation 145 and before "Schedule" insert the following new Chapter XII and new Regulations 146 to 174, namely:

"CHAPTER XII*Students' Associations

146. Constitution of Students' Associations—(1) Students' Associations may by Notification in the Journal of the Institute be formed in such places as the Council considers it expedient and necessary and shall be known by such name as may be specified in such Notification:

Provided that no such Students' Association shall be formed in any area unless there are residing at least 50 students and members of the Institute in that area.

(2) The Students' Associations shall at all times function subject to the control, supervision and direction of the Council and/or its Standing Committees.

147. Definitions—In this Chapter unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context—

(i) "Students' Associations" means the Students' Associations established by the Council in accordance with these Regulations.

(ii) "Managing Committee" means the governing body of the Students' Association constituted in accordance with these Regulations.

(iii) "Student" means a registered student of the Institute studying for the examinations conducted or undergoing training under these Regulations.

148. Functions of the Students' Associations—The Students' Associations may perform all or any of the following functions:

(i) Developing social contacts and a spirit of fellow-feeling amongst the students and members of the Institute.

(ii) Promoting social, cultural and intellectual development of the students and members of the Institute.

(iii) Assisting in the education of students in the modern developments in trade, commerce and industry and in the post-graduate education of members of the Institute.

(iv) Organising classes, lectures, meetings, debates, seminars, study circles and other means of professional attainments of students and members of the Institute.

(v) Establishing and maintaining libraries and reading rooms for the benefit of students and members of the Institute.

(vi) Providing study and research groups on subjects relating to Cost and Works Accountancy.

(vii) Providing opportunities for exchange of ideas amongst the students and members of the Institute and facilities for visits to workshops, factories and industrial organisations, and organising trips and tours to places of historical and educational importance and generally for the acquisition and dissemination by other means of useful information connected with the profession.

(viii) Making representations to the Council and to the Regional Councils on matters concerning the common interest of the students and members of the Institute and for raising the standard and status of the profession.

(ix) Advising the Council or the Regional Councils on all matters referred to it by the Council or the Regional Councils, as the case may be, and offering such other help as may be required.

(x) Maintaining a Register of Members of the Students' Association.

(xi) Carrying out such other functions as may be entrusted from time to time by the Council for the attainment of the abovementioned objectives.

149. Admission on the Membership Register—All registered students and members of the Institute having their registered addresses within the area to be named by the Council shall be members of the Students' Association within that area. Any person who ceases to be a registered student or a member of the Institute shall ipso facto cease to be a member of the Students' Association.

150. Fees—(1) Every student admitted to the membership of the Students' Association shall pay to the Students' Association concerned an annual fee of Rs. 5 which shall be due and payable on 1st April in each year.

(2) When a registered student or a member of the Institute shifts from one place to another, as a result of which he resides in a place nearer to the headquarters of any Students' Association within the area or in an area different from the one he had been previously residing in, his membership of the Students' Association shall also be transferred, and if the student concerned had already paid the annual fee for the year to the Students' Association prior to his transfer, no further annual fee shall be payable for that year to the Students' Association to which he is transferred.

151. Constitution of Managing Committee—(1) There shall be a Managing Committee for the management of the affairs of the Students' Association and for discharging the functions assigned to it under these Regulations. The Managing Committee shall be composed of—

- (a) Three members to be elected by the students of the Students' Association.
- (b) One member to be elected by the members of the Institute, if any, having their addresses in the area of the Students' Association;
- (c) One member to be nominated by the Regional Council of the area; and
- (d) One member to be nominated by the Council.

(2) One-third of the members elected by the students and the member elected by the members of the Institute shall retire every year at the Annual General Meeting and their places shall be filled up by fresh election.

(3) The person nominated by the Council and the Regional Council shall be subject to annual nomination.

152. Chairman of Managing Committee—(1) The Chairman of the Managing Committee shall be nominated by the Council from amongst persons nominated by the Council and the Regional Council to the Managing Committee, who shall also be the Chairman of the Students' Association.

(2) The Chairman of the Managing Committee shall be the Chief Executive Authority of the Students' Association.

153. Elections to Managing Committee—Elections to the Managing Committee shall be conducted as hereinafter provided. If a dispute ever arises regarding any such election, the matter shall be referred within thirty days from the date of election to the President and his decision shall be final.

154. Who is eligible to vote—Every person who has been a member of the Students' Association from a date immediately six months prior to the date of election shall be eligible to vote and stand for election to the Managing Committee of the Students' Association to which he belongs: Provided that in the case of first constitution of the Managing Committee the condition of six months' membership shall not apply.

155. Nomination of candidates for election—(1) Any person standing for election shall submit a nomination to the Chairman of the Managing Committee duly signed by the candidate and by the proposer and seconder, both of whom shall be persons entitled to vote in the election, so as to reach the said Chairman before ten days of the meeting at which the election is to take place.

(2) Every candidate for election shall pay a fee of Rs. 5 to the Students' Association which shall not be refunded in any circumstances.

156. Procedure of election—(1) Election to the Managing Committee will be held at the first meeting of the Students' Association which shall be called on the first occasion by the member nominated to the office of the Chairman and at the Annual General Meeting in the subsequent years.

(2) The election shall be by poll of members present at the meeting. No proxy shall be allowed.

(3) The names of all candidates elected shall be announced at the meeting by the Chairman of the meeting and his declaration shall be final.

157. Officers of Students' Association—The Managing Committee at its first meeting after the Annual General Meeting or after the same has been constituted for the first time, which shall be held within ten days of the General Meeting or its constitution as the case may be, shall elect a Vice-Chairman and a Secretary and Treasurer of the Students' Association and so often as any of these offices becomes vacant, the Committee shall choose another person from among its members to hold that office.

158. Vacancies—(1) Any member of the Managing Committee may at any time resign his membership by writing under his hand addressed to the Chairman, and the seat of such member shall become vacant when such resignation is accepted by the Chairman of the Managing Committee.

(2) A member of the Managing Committee shall be deemed to have vacated his seat if he is declared by the Managing Committee to have been absent without sufficient excuse from three consecutive meetings of the Committee, or if his name is for any cause removed from the Register of Members of the Students' Association.

(3) Any casual vacancy in the Managing Committee shall be filled up by nomination by the Council or by the Regional Council or by co-option by the Managing Committee from amongst the members of the Students' Association concerned, according as the vacancy is caused by the resignation or the vacation of the seat of a member nominated by the Council or by the Regional Council, or elected by the students and members of the Institute and the person so nominated or co-opted shall continue as a member of the Managing Committee until the next Annual General Meeting.

(4) No act done by the Managing Committee shall be called in question on the ground merely of the existence of any vacancy in, or defect in the constitution of that Committee.

159. Term of office—The Chairman of the Managing Committee shall continue to hold office of Chairman during the pleasure of the Council. The Vice-Chairman and the Secretary and Treasurer of the Students' Association shall hold office until the next Annual General Meeting. The retiring office bearers shall be eligible for re-election.

160. Committees—(1) The Managing Committee may form such committees as it deems necessary for carrying out its activities.

(2) The Chairman of the Managing Committee and of any other committee may at any time and shall on a written requisition of any two members of the committee call a meeting of the committee.

(3) The meeting of a committee shall be held at such place and at such time as its Chairman may direct.

(4) A notice of not less than seven days of every such meeting shall ordinarily be given to every member of the committee.

(5) No business shall be transacted at any meeting of a committee unless three members are present in person. In the event of there being no quorum within half an hour of the time fixed for the meeting, the meeting shall stand adjourned sine die.

(6) All questions before a committee shall be decided by a majority of votes. In the event of equality of votes, the Chairman of the meeting shall have a casting vote in addition to his original one.

(7) Proper record of all the business transacted by a committee at a meeting shall be maintained by the Secretary of the Students' Association.

161. Powers and functions of committees—Subject to the foregoing provisions, the committees shall exercise such functions and be subject to such conditions in the exercise thereof as may be decided by the Managing Committee.

162. Functions of Managing Committee—(1) The Managing Committee at its first meeting each year shall prepare a budget for the incoming year, and after the same has been approved at a meeting of the Managing Committee, the budget shall be sent to the Council for its approval. The expenditure of the Students' Association shall be regulated in accordance with the budgets sanctioned by the Council;

(2) The Managing Committee at its first meeting in each year shall draw up a programme of activities to be undertaken during the incoming year, a copy of which shall be sent to the Council and the Regional Council of the area for obtaining such guidance as they may consider necessary to give in regard to the activities of the Students' Association.

163. Meetings of Managing Committee—(1) The Managing Committee shall meet at least once in every three months at such time and place as the Chairman of the Managing Committee may determine;

(2) Notice of the time and place of an intended meeting shall be sent to every member of the Managing Committee not less than seven days before such meeting;

(3) At all meetings of the Managing Committee, the Chairman, or in his absence the Vice-Chairman, shall be the Chairman, or, in the absence of both, a Chairman shall be elected from among those present;

(4) Three members personally present shall constitute the quorum of a meeting of the Managing Committee. If a quorum is not present on the expiration of half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting, the meeting shall stand adjourned to such future date as the Chairman of the Managing Committee may appoint. At any such adjourned meeting, the members present, whatever their number, shall form the quorum;

(5) All questions before the Managing Committee shall be decided by a majority of votes. In the event of equality of votes the Chairman of the meeting shall have a casting vote in addition to his original one.

(6) Minutes shall be kept of all resolutions and proceedings of the meetings of the Managing Committee and shall be forwarded to the Council and to the Regional Council of the area duly signed by the Chairman of the meeting.

164. Staff, remuneration and allowances—For the efficient performance of its duties the Managing Committee may—

- appoint such persons on its staff as it deems necessary;
- require and take from any member of the staff such security for the due performance of his duties as the Managing Committee considers necessary;
- fix the salaries, fees, allowances and other conditions of service of the servants of the Students' Association.

Provided that no member of the Managing Committee shall be paid any remuneration or allowance for services rendered by him.

165. Finances and Accounts of Students' Association—(1) There shall be established a fund under the management and control of the Managing Committee into which shall be paid all moneys received by the Managing Committee and a sum equal to what is collected from members of the area by the Council under Regulation 7(6) and such grant from the Council as it may sanction if necessary and out of such fund shall be met all expenses and liabilities properly incurred by the Managing Committee.

(2) The Managing Committee may invest any money for the time being standing to the credit of the fund in any Government security or in any other security approved by the Council.

(3) The Managing Committee shall not borrow money without the prior approval of the Council. The Managing Committee may, in addition to the annual fee received by it from its members, raise on a voluntary basis such additional subscription in respect of particular activities from the participating members as it may consider justified.

(4) The funds of a Students' Association shall be employed for such purposes as may from time to time be sanctioned by the Managing Committee but within the objects prescribed in these Regulations.

(5) The Managing Committee shall keep proper accounts of the fund distinguishing capital from revenue.

(6) The annual accounts of a Students' Association shall be subject to audit by a Chartered Accountant or a firm of Chartered Accountants appointed by the Council to audit its accounts.

(7) As soon as may be practicable at the end of each year, but not later than the 30th day of the September next following, the Managing Committee shall submit to the Council and to the Regional Council a copy of the audited accounts and the report of the Managing Committee for that year and copies of the said accounts and report shall be forwarded to all members of the Students' Association.

166. General Meeting—The Managing Committee may summon a meeting of the members of the Students' Association as often as it may think fit and proper;

Provided that such a meeting shall be called and held at least once in every year.

167. Annual General Meeting—One General Meeting shall be held in the month of September every year and that meeting shall be called the Annual General Meeting.

168. Notice of Meeting—At least 21 days' notice of the meeting specifying the day, place and hour of such meeting and in case of special business, the general nature of such business shall be given.

169. Notice of proposals—Every member of the Students' Association on its Register shall be entitled to table any proposals or resolutions for the consideration of the meeting of the members: Provided that such proposals or resolutions shall be sent so as to reach the Secretary of the Managing Committee at least 28 days before the date of the meeting. Any such proposals received after the prescribed time will be treated as proposals for the next following meeting of the members unless admitted by the Chairman of the earlier meeting:

Provided, however, that nominations to the Managing Committee may be sent to the Chairman of the Managing Committee so as to reach him before ten days of the Annual General Meeting. The nominations received need not be circulated among the members but shall be announced at the Annual General Meeting.

170. Business of Annual General Meeting—The business of the Annual General Meeting shall be to receive the report of the Managing Committee, to adopt the accounts, to elect the office bearers, and to transact such other business as may be brought before the meeting with the permission of the Chairman.

171. Chairman—The Chairman of the Managing Committee shall be the Chairman of the General Meetings of the Students' Association and in the absence of the Chairman, the Vice-Chairman, and in his absence the members may elect any one of the members present as Chairman of the meeting.

172. Quorum—(1) Ten members personally present shall form a quorum. No business shall be transacted at any General Meeting unless the requisite quorum be present at the commencement of the business.

(2) If within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time and place and at every such adjourned meeting the members present, whatever their number, shall have power to transact all the business which could properly have been transacted by the original meeting, had the necessary quorum been present thereat.

173. Decisions to be by majority—All decisions at all meetings shall be taken by a majority of votes. In case of equality of votes, the Chairman of the meeting shall have a casting vote in addition to his original one.

174. Dissolution of the Students' Association—Notwithstanding anything contained in these Regulations a Students' Association shall stand dissolved if after giving proper hearing to the Managing Committee of the Students' Association, the Council decides to dissolve the Students' Association. On the dissolution of the Students' Association all its property, assets and funds shall vest in the Council.
